Keith C. Clark Going to Egypt

A former Eugenean, Keith Conrad Clark, has just been assigned to Cairo, Egypt, as an attache of the U.S. embassy.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Clark of 1050 Ferry St., Eugene, he has been with the State Department in Washington, D.C., for several years, working in the Central Intelligence Agency.

Clark attended Eugene public schools, then won a scholarship to Yale University. He was graduated from Yale with a master's degree.

His family expects to join him in Egypt in about six weeks.
